Reds Win By 36 Runs & 4 Wickets

A close game was enjoyed by all last Thursday with some good skills on show (most of the time).

The session was started with a 20 minute coaching session run by Ash and Andrew, focusing on catching practice. The subsequent match proved the coaching paid off.

Reds went into bat with Mieszek and Mike H putting down a creditable 29 . Then Ash and Jen followed on with a strong 31. Then some three wickets fell to some good bowling from Sue and Mike P with a catch in the field. Liz and Roger got things back on track with an excellent 46. So reds ended their innings on 115 for 3 wickets.

Yellow went in, but the first two innings lost 6 wickets with some good bowling from Mike H, Ash, Nina and Liz, as well as two fine catches. Then Andrew and Danny put on 40, and Dave B and Martin notched up a further 35. Giving the yellows a total of 79 for 7 wickets.

Rotherham Game Dates

Rotherham having been in touch about the greenfield game and offered two possible dates namely: w/c 22nd April and cross fingers for the weather or w/c the 13th May. They would prefer a Monday or a Tuesday.

My instinct is to go for the May dates because of the weather and so that would be the 13th or 14th May. If anyone has any views about the dates, that is availability or clashes with other events please let me know.
